TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

Washington, 25th—President Harison's Message on the Chilian question has been sent to Congress, together with all the correspondence exchanged on the subject. After resuming the events in connection with it, and showing the gravity of the case, the Message says that the President found himself forced to maintain his rights with firmness and insist on compliance with the terms of the ultimatum sent to the Government of Chile on the 21st inst.

In said note ample satisfaction and complete reparation is demanded for the attack on the sailors of the Baltimore on the 16th of Oct., and withdrawal of the circular note of Minister Matta of the 13th December, the language used in which must be withdrawn in the same public way in which it was given to circulation.

In case of refusal, diplomatic relations with Chile will be broken off.

The recall of Minister Egan will not be considered until the ultimatum is accepted and enforced by Congress.

There is great excitement in Washington. The President delayed for some hours the sending of the Message to Congress, hoping that Chile would send some answer to the ultimatum. It is said that there is news from Chile to the effect that an immense crowd fills the streets of the capital since yesterday. The business resorts are full of people silently reading Harisson's Message. Here also there is great agitation, and nothing is spoken of but war.

San Francisco, 25th—The Government has chartered the steamer San Benito, of the South Pacific Company, to carry coal to the United States ships leaving for Chile. Three other colliers go with the San Benito.

St. Petersburg, 25th—The officers of the garrison of Warsaw have been sent to the stations east of that city, as they are suspected of revolutionary tendencies.

Brussels, 26th—General Chasal has died at Pau.

Dublin, 26th—The speeches of the political leaders in Ireland show a probability of an arrangement between the Clericals and Nationalists.

Lisbon, 26th—The Cabinet denies the rumour that the sale of the Portuguese Colonies is amongst the measures contemplated to cover the financial deficit.

Berlin, 26th—Owing to the discussions going on between the Finance Minister, Mikel, and Chancellor Caprivi in reference to the Bill about Religious Education, the former presented his resignation, but withdrew it at the request of the Emperor.

Madrid, 26th—Government has proposed the suppression of 35 Courts of Justice, for reasons of retrenchment.

Tangiers, 26th—The new Governor of this city was installed in office to-day; and the rebellious tribes have accepted him.

St. Petersburg, 26th—Starving peasants have committed several robberies and murders in the city of Sokoloff. Amongst the victims there are several priests.

THE BRITANNIA MAILS.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

London, Dec. 26th.

The defeat of Michael Davitt at the Waterford election shows a turn in the tide of Irish politics. Although Mr. Parnell was dead the Irish clergy vigorously opposed his party and policy, and seemed to regard the Healy faction as the true friend of Ireland. Now that the Parnellite candidate, Mr. Redmond, has been returned for Waterford, by a majority of 500, it would appear that the Irish people will adopt the counsel of their late leader by organizing an independent party.

The great Pearl Mystery, that is the suit of Mrs. Osborne against her cousin, Mrs. Hargreaves, for slander came to a dramatic close. Sir Charles Russell, by order of Capt. Osborne, admitted that his client had stolen the pearls. It transpired that one of the £50 notes which she received for the stolen jewels was traced to her, and actually bore her endorsement. Mrs. Hargreaves declares that she will not prosecute the criminal, but it is supposed the Crown may take up the case, as detectives have started in quest of Mrs. Osborne.

A young ex-officer of the French Army has been arrested in Paris on suspicion of being the murderer of the Baroness Dellard. The knife which the murderer dropped after the commission of the crime bore the mark of a Lyons cutler. Louis Charles Anastay was acquainted with the Dellard family, who had repeatedly befriended him. His regiment was stationed at Lyons, but, as he had just been retired, he came to Paris a few days before the murder. The servant woman, whom he also attacked, and another important Witness have identified him; and he has yet to be confronted with the cutler from Lyons. The accused has confessed the crime.

A large congregation assembled at Bristol Cathedral yesterday, in anticipation that the Bishop, Dr. Ellicott, would wear the vestments recently presented to him. The Bishop wore the cope, and used the pastoral staff, but the mitre he carried in his hand. It was understood that a protest against his wearing the mitre was intended to be made by certain Evangelical members of the congregation.

The damage to the White Star steamer Germanic has been found to be of a serious nature, and she will have to be towed back to Liverpool for repairs. Her passengers and mails are to be transferred to the Cunard steamer Bothnia, which sails from Liverpool to-day, and from Queenstown to-morrow, for New York. The Germanic has been towed into the inner harbour at Queenstown, where she now lies at anchor.

The railway near Lowestoft where the accident occurred on Thursday night was cleared of its wreckage by noon yesterday. About twenty persons were found to have been injured, but there have been no more deaths. The inquest will be opened to day.

The permanent Committee of the German Commercial Diet (Handelstag), to which almost all the German Chambers of Commerce belong, has declared in favour of an International Exhibition being held shortly in Berlin. The main purpose of an International Exhibition —namely, to give foreign countries as complete a picture as possible of the whole industry of the country in which it takes place, has become an object of very great importance to Germany since the conclusion of the new Commercial Treaties. The members of the German Commercial Diet will, however, have finally to decide the question as to the Berlin project at their general meeting, which takes place in the middle of January. Their verdict will probably be in the affirmative.

The brewers of all the larger Nuremberg breweries are on strike for higher wages, and eleven hours' work.

The Russian Government has sent a party of military engineers to the Caucasus, for the purpose of making a survey and constructing a line from Adgicaboula, near Baku, to the military town of Astara, which is on the Russo-Persian frontier. Three other branch lines are to be made from the railway now running from Batoum to Baku. These branches will connect the Russo-Turkish and Russo-Persian frontiers with the principal military d'stricts in the Caucasus.

Owing to the spread of small-pox in Moscow, the schools are to be closed. In the country around that city there has been a new and severe outbreak of the malady.

At St. Petersburg it has been decided that all local Committees for the relief of the famine-stricken population must be amalgamated in and under the control of a central body.

Cold and wintry weather continued yesterday over nearly the whole of the United Kingdom, and in many parts of England the frost was again very sharp, although the temperature was rising slowly but steadily throughout the day. The fog was general over England, and in places it was very thick. In London the fog had lifted greatly, although the atmosphere was still thick. Rain fell in the early morning, freezing as it touched the ground, and completely coating the roads and footways with ice, which were in consequence exceedingly slippery throughout the day. A very sharp frost occurred in the Metropolis on Christmas-eve, but the temperature was rising yesterday, although it was still freezing. Last evening the barometer was falling briskly in the west, and there were indications of a general thaw spreading over the country, whilst gales were setting in on the Irish coasts.

During the midnight Mass in the Cathedral at Valencia on Christmas-eve a petard was exploded, destroying one of the altars. A similar outrage took place in a church in the same city.

The rising among the Malays in Pahang has been suppressed, after a serious conflict between the authorities and the rioters, headed by Orang Kyah.

A serious railway disaster is reported from Hastings, New Jersey. An express train, after leaving New York for Niagara, was stopped by an obstruction. Whilst at a standstill it was run into by the St. Louis express. The last carriage, a sleeping car, was dashed to pieces, and the wreckage caught fire. Nine persons were killed and many injured.

The Admiralty have decided to establish a School of Gunnery at Sheerness Naval Barracks on the 1st of April. It will supply a long-felt want at the eastern ports, as hitherto seamen and Marines stationed in the Nore district have had to be sent to Portsmouth to pass through the gunnery classes. It is under consideration to attach the new battle ship Sanspareil to the new School. The Sanspareil is equipped with two 110-ton breechloading guns, one 30-ton breechloader, twelve 6in. 5-ton breechloaders, and twenty quick-firing guns, and has not been employed upon active service except during the Naval Manœuvres in August last.

The churches of the Metropolis were lavishly decorated yesterday; but the services were not largely attended, owing to the fog and frost. The Deans preached at the two Cathedrals, and the Bishop of London at the morning service at the Fulham parish church. Carols were sung by the choirs in many instances, and selections from oratorios at the churches which are known for their musical services.

The Pope celebrated the customary Christmas Masses in St. Peter's at ten o'clock yesterday evening and at half-past seven this morning.

The New Year receptions of the Vatican Court officials will commence to-morrow.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Dec. 25th.

The marriage of H. R. H. the Duke of Clarence and Avondale with the Princess May of Teck is fixed for February 27th. The ceremony will take place in St. George's Chapel, Windsor. Their Royal Highnesses are afterwards to drive in State through the streets of London. There will be bell-ringing and other effects characteristic of the Elizabethan age. Lord Salisbury may be made a duke in honour of the occasion.

The Waterford election has resulted in a Parnellite victory. Mr. Redmond has defeated Mr. Davitt by 546 votes. The total of the votes was 3,004. When the High Sheriff announced the result, the Parnellites were wild with enthusiasm. Mr. Davitt in seconding a vote of thanks to the Sheriff, observed that he would rather have lost the election than won it by a combination of terrorism and rowdyism. This was received with yells of indignation and shaking of fists, and such exclamation as "disgraceful" "mean coward." The altercation in the counting room was very warm and in the Mall also, but eventually the police interfered and no heads were broken. Waterford is a stronghold of Parnellism, and Mr. Michael Davitt is not a "persona grata" to the priesthood; his socialistic opinions are not popular amongst the Nationalists in general.

The accounts of the accidents and misery of London during the succession of dense fogs which have occurred during the last fortnight would give a false notion of the climate in England at this season of the year, unless it be recorded that out of London, and particularly in the neighbourhood of Eastbourne and on the south coast in general, never in the memory of the oldest inhabitants has such splendid weather prevailed in the depth of winter. The skies have been literally cloudless; and the day before Christmas day the air was balmy even on the heights, and under the shelter of the cliffs the sun was inconveniently hot.

There has been a rumour, to the discredit of the politeness and sense of the British abroad, that Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Morley had been blackballed at the English Club at Biarritz. This has now been contradicted. At all events, the gentlemen named have received sufficient votes to ensure their election.

Two careful statisticians and bankers (Mr. John B. Martin and Mr. R. H. Inglis Palgrave, F.R.S.) have been long engaged in an investigation of the amount of gold coin circulating in the United Kingdom. They now communicate their conclusion in a letter. From 69 to 75 million pounds sterling, of which about 25 million is held by the Bank of England and other banks, is the sum total of gold coin in this country according to their calculations. The use of cheques and book credits has economised gold to a great extent, leaving about 70 millions to meet commercial and other liabilities, which must be disproportionately large, for 150 millions are often paid in one week through the Bankers' Clearing-House without the transfer of a single sovereign. Gold is, as a rule, only used as small change; credit does the main work. But credit sometimes fails. This being so, we have only to endorse the remark of Mr. Martin and Mr. Palgrave concerning Mr. Goschen's proposal to economise gold still further. They think that their investigation "shows how narrow the basis is that he has to work on, and how great is the risk attendant on any measure that may attenuate still further the amount of gold coin held in the country."

Forebodings during the rainy harvest weather are justified by the results as embodied in the official summary, published yesterday, of the agricultural produce statistics for 1891. In a note appended to these statistics we are told that the reports from a large number of districts indicate that the corn crops generally are inferior in quality and condition, and that an unusually large proportion of grain was shed in the fields. The total produce of wheat is more than a million bushels short of last year's yield; barley is a million and eight hundred thousand bushels below last year's figures, though the acreage under barley was larger; and oats have fallen short by nearly eight million bushels. The estimated average yield per acre of oats was under 39 bushels, instead of 41½; barley gave an average of 34 bushels instead of 35; but wheat yelded 31¼ bushels to the acre as compared with 30¾ in 1890.

A letter signed "Q", in last Saturday's Economist, is currently attributed—rightly or otherwise—to the present Governor of the Bank of England. In it he contends that the present system of reserves (according to which the public rely upon banks who rely upon the Bank of England, and ultimately upon the permit of the Government to relax the Bank Act of 1844) is a bad system, and he does not see how the expense of providing a better reserve can be met, apart from such a plan as Mr. Goschen's. The point of the letter lies in the following words:—"Whether the Bank likes it or not, as holder of the public balances, the bankers' reserves, and the ultimate reserve of the whole country, it cannot, however, free itself from heavy responsibilities". It seems that, once for all, we may take this as a final confession that the Bank really considers itself responsible for the maintenance of credit. Indeed that duty has long appeared impossible of evasion, seeing that the Bank receives the accounts of other bankers. It it were to throw off the responsibility of meeting a panic or crisis of credit, it would have to refuse the keeping of outside bankers' balances.

MRS. HARGREAVE'S PEARLS.

In spite of a bleak, foggy, wintry morning yesterday, anxious applicants for admission, many of whom were disappointed, hung around the doors of the Royal Courts of Justice from 9 o'clock, notwithstanding the fact that there was no chance of their being opened until ten. Those who did get within the precincts of the building soon filled the court in every quarter save the Bench. In spite of the efforts of the officials, gentlemen and ladies, especially ladies, effectually demonstrated the soundness of the proposition that no place is so full as not to be able to hold one more. The body of the court and the galleries were quickly seized upon, and even the gangways, usually sacred to the in and out goings of counsel and solicitors, were invaded. This fact, however, did not matter much, for the proceedings did not last beyond a few minutes, though into these few minutes was concentrated and condensed a result that might under ordinary circumstances have taken days of painful inquiry and laborious argument to work out. The first intimation of the turn affairs were about to take was furnished from the plaintiff's side. Mrs. Osborne did not appear; nor did Captain Osborne, her husband; nor Mrs. Geach, her eldest sister; nor Miss Evelyn Elliot, her younger sister. On the other hand, Mrs. and Major Hargreave were in their places. Then counsel came in. Sir Edward Clarke, Mr Cock and Mr George Elliott had to force their way through the doors, and get up to their places somehow. Sir Charles Russell, preceded by his solicitor, Mr. St. John Wontner, and accompanied by his juniors, Mr Charles Mathews and Mr Lewis Coward, made their entrance into court with similar difficulty, and, having obtained their seats, awaited the arrival of the Judge amid much excitement. The Judge entered, and still no plaintiff was present. Then Sir Charles Russell rose, and in a very few words described the course he and his learned friends were about to take. According to the etiquette of the Bar, the counsel associated with their leader in the case rose and remained standing while Sir Charles informed the Court what was the result, so far as they were concerned, of the incident that led to Saturday's adjournment. That he had a painful task to perform was obvious, not only from his words but from his manner. Speaking with an effort, quite unusual in an advocate usually fluent, eloquent and persuasive, Sir Charles Russell said that he had promptly communicated with his learned friends engaged with him in the case, and that they had decided that it was impossible for them to represent the plaintiff any longer in that case. As a tribute to Captain Osborne's behaviour in the matter, Sir Charles remarked, that in addition to following what was right in their own view of the case, they were acting, not merely with the authority of Captain Osborne, but upon his "imperative" instructions. There remained yet another duty for the learned counsel to perform, which he did in graceful language, and that was to express the regret that he had been the medium of conveying any reflections upon the character of Major Hargreave or his wife. At the same time he added that Captain Osborne had desired to add his regret to that of his counsel, and to state that throughout the whole of the affair Captain Osborne had acted as a thoroughly honourable and chivalrous gentleman.

The Judge, upon this, observed that counsel for the plaintif consented to a verdict being taken against her on all the issues. Sir C. Russell, assenting to this view, the Solicitor-General intervened with the remark that he had a word to say in order to make known the manner in which that result had come about. Since Saturday, on which day a communication had been made to the Bench, they had made inquiries ——Sir C. Russell here interposed the statement that the inquiries as to the communication had been made by both sides, and Sir E. Clarke acknowledged it. These inquiries had had the following result: Upon the 23rd of February the 550£, in sovereigns received from Messrs. Glyn, Mills and Co.'s Bank were taken to the shop of Messrs. Benjamin and Sons, Ulster House, Conduit-street, by a lady who requested that they should be exchanged for notes. Messrs. Benjamin not having the notes at hand referred the lady to their bank, the National Provincial Bank, St. James's-square, where notes were obtained for the gold. The numbers of the notes were immediately ascertained, and among them were seven 50£ notes. One of these was on an early day in March transferred by Miss Elliot to Messrs. Maple in part payment of some linen. "That note," continued the Solicitor-General, amidst breathless excitement, "is in possession of the Bank of England, and bears on its back the signature of Miss Elliot." The tracing of the other notes had not been completed, but it was intimated that this operation was in progress. In conclusion, Sir Edward made a generous acknowledgement of Sir Charles Russell's retractation of any imputations against the character of Major and Mrs. Hargreave, and especially with regard to the suggestions thrown out in which Mr. Engelheart's name had been brought in. He emphasised the force and the grace of his remarks by reciprocating the sentiments which had been expressed by Sir Charles Russell as to Captain Osborne's conduct and the sympathy which everybody must feel for him in his painful position.

The Judge thereupon had little left for him to do. He at once directed the jury that by the consent of counsel on both sides they had to return a verdict for the defendants on all issues, remarking that he himself since Saturday had been carefully examining the evidence, and had come to the conclusion that no other result could have been arrived at. With a few observations in commendation of the way the case had been conducted by counsel, in which his lordship used the word "nobly," he simply instructed the jury to return a verdict for the defendants, which they did at once.

The suddenness with which the whole business was done, occupying as it did about 20 minutes, seemed fairly to take the spectators' breath away. During the momentous utterances of Sir Charles Russell and the Solicitor-General such a stillness reigned that the crammed and crowded Court seemed in a state of suspended animation. It was only after the verdict had been returned and the Judge had left the bench that the pent-up feelings of the audience broke out by way of conversation in some sort of relief. The general public seemed hardly able to believe that the matter had been settled and done with. Counsel soon left the Court, but there still remained knots of people in the Court discussing the extraordinary outcome of events. The atmosphere was densely foggy, and it was rather difficult to find one's way about. That may have accounted for the delay that took place in clearing the Court. Outside, in the corridors, Major and Mrs. Hargreave were congratulated by their friends, and eventually made their way to the Strand entrance. After a much longer space of time than is usually necessary to clear the Court, the assemblage broke up and melted away in the fog.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Jan. 26.

There is a complete dearth of news in regard to the Bank project. No fresh advices have been received from London, and the Government is very silent. It is rumored that Messrs. Mallmann are in possession of the latest advices on the subject. It is also rumored that Finance Minister Ramirez received the following telegram from Dr. Ellauri in London: "Don't resign. Everything will be arranged."

One of the cases of beri-beri on Flores Island suffered a sudden relapse and proved fatal. There is now only one case of the disease on the Island.

The milkmen held a meeting to-day and resolved to name a committee to defend their interests. They are talking of a strike.

The steamship companies, in view of the delays and losses occasioned by quarantine, have decided to run their vessels direct from Europe to the Plate.

The Judges' vacation terminated yesterday.

The festivities in the port yesterday, to commemorate the reduction of the port-dues, were a great success. On shore, several buildings, including the offices of the Telegrafo Maritimo, were decorated for the occasion.

All loading and unloading operations were suspended, and at 3 p.m. the boat races, organized by the National and Rowing Clubs, came off. The President, his ministers and the diplomatic corps were present at the festivities. At night the Bay presented a gorgeous appearance, all the vessels being illuminated. The festivities terminated at 10 p.m.

The question of the July revolution has been submitted to the Chambers.

The death is announced of Hector Soto, also of Captain Corvetto.

It is announced that Bayley, son-in-law of Senator Stuart, will be appointed Captain of the Port.

The question of the military tribunals is settled. They are to be opened at once.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Mendoza still continues to occupy public attention. The Interventor has issued a decree assuming the reins of power, and invited the honorable legislators to meet and pass laws as usual, assuring them that they have nothing to fear, as they will be protected by the troops. We note that a somewhat disagreeable incident occurred shortly after the arrival of the Interventor. It appears the Interventor sent an invitation to an editor to have a quiet chat. Our brother of the pen put on a new coat and a smiling face and called at the Hotel where the Interventor was staying. He discovered to his horror that no preparations had been made for his reception. However, he sent in his card, expecting no doubt to be received immediately. To his increased horror he was told not only to wait but to wait in the passage. Our indignant contemporary put on his hat and sent his servant to the hotel, having come to the conclusion that the Interventor wanted to see his servant and not himself. The Interventor was highly amused at first, and sent to summon the editor again, but the latter sent word that if the Interventor wanted to speak to him, his house was in such a street etc. The Interventor then waxed angry. It is not stated whether the Interventor sent a battalion of the line to fetch our colleague.

A telegram received yesterday states that the Interventor issued a manifesto on Sunday addressed to "the peaceful Mendocinos," the fellows that assaulted Suarez's house, and the political Mendocinos. To the first he says that they may open their shops and resume their business; the second category are to be arraigned before the Courts; and the third are asked to bottle their animosity and remember that there are just as good people as they in Mendoza.

Our Rosario exchanges state that owing to the want of threshing-machines, colonists are compelled to stack their wheat. The crops this year seem to have knocked machine-importers on their beam ends. The complaint that there are not sufficient agricultural machines is general. Under these circumstances, it is not astonishing to see an Argentine firm try its hand at making a threshing-machine. The experiment has proved a success, so far as the making and working are concerned, but, of course, the cost has been considerable.

On Monday, the Banco Nuevo de la Nacion Argentina opened a branch in Rosario. Twenty merchants, "pour encourager les autres," went immediately to deposit some money, in all about $200,000. The Branch will begin to discount in a few days.

Mr. Carlos Aldao has been appointed Rector of the National College in Rosario.

Advices from Bragado report another provincial crime. A man named Quiroga, a relative perhaps of the Tigre de la Pampa, provoked another during some jollification of the Mysterious Island Society, and wound up by shooting him dead. As usual, the police could not capture the murderer. This is the third murder committed in Bragado within the last eight days.

Dr. Roque Saenz Peña paid La Plata a flying visit on Monday and was entertained at breakfast by the Governor. We suppose the presidential candidate was enchanted with the provincial capital, which some day may become the federal capital. There were about 20 people at the breakfast, politics and prospects being the chief topics of conversation.

THE FRENCH FLEET.

An American naval officer, Lieutenant Bradley A. Fiske, recently returned from a visit to the French Mediterranean squadron during its manœuvres, praises, with an impartiality which does him credit, the excellent condition of the French navy. "I consider," he says, "that the French navy is as far ahead of all the other navies of the Continent as is the German Army ahead of all other Continental armies. As for drill, the French sailors are simply perfect. The word "perfect" alone expresses it. Let them be assembled as infantry, and their work is merely a duplication of what one is accustumed to see in the Seventh Regiment of New York. Then, again, let a signal be flown, as I have seen it fly in Toulon Harbor, directing all ships to immediately proceed to sea, and the fleet goes out like one vessel. There is no stopping, no hesitation, no faltering. The fleet moves like one ship. It is superb, is is grand. As for manœuvres, their combined squadrons twist in and out, first from columns of files to columns of line, then in S formations, executing all labryinthic movements with perfect ease, but never fouling, never falling out of line. Then when the signal flies to anchor as before, why, that great fleet works in through the narrow channel of Toulon and every ship moves up to her buoy with so little trouble and with such quietude that it fairly amazes one accustomed to hear orders bellowed forth and see ships stumbling all over each other in their endeavor to conform with movements. Still, again, on deck the orders are executed with almost death-like silence. An officer gives an order in a low tone. The men spring to their work. No one forward speaks, no one even whispers. The movement is executed in an instant, and so easily, so quietly that the real effort is lost to the eye much in the same manner as a difficult trapeze feat is lost to an audience when performed by a skillful athlete." Lieut. Fiske describes the handling of the guns of the fleet as admirable: "The gun crews throw their heavy guns around like toys and with that same ease of motion which to a foreigner is simply astonishing. There is no noise about decks, no confusion. Everything moves like clockwork. There is no hilarity such as one hears on English and American ships. The Frenchmen move like machines and accomplish their work like machine timed instruments." English naval critics speak in similarly enthusiastic terms of the French navy, and the second great Republic of the world will evidently make herself felt on the seas in the next general European war.

CORDOBA AND ROSARIO RAILWAY.

Mr. Halstead has been appointed Locomotive Superintendent and Maintenance Engineer of the Cordoba and Rosario Railway, and will take up the duties forthwith, the railway being in course of transfer from the contractors to the Company.

The Board of Directors of the Company is to be congratulated on the selection it has made, and the Executive in this country on acquiring the co-operation of a thoroughly efficient colleague.

Mr. Halstead received his technical training in the establishment of Messrs. Beyer, Peacock & Co., the well-known locomotive engine builders, of Gorton Foundry, Manchester. This firm has made almost a speciality of constructing locomotives for the River Plate. Their engines are in general use throughout both republics, and are understood to have given excellent results. Mr. Halstead for some years was entrusted with the care of Messrs. Beyer and Peacock's interests in Argentina and Uruguay, with both which countries he is extensively acquainted, and he possesses an excellent practical knowledge of the Spanish language.

Since 1888 Mr. Halstead has held the charge of Locomotive Superintendent and Maintenance Engineer of the Midland Uruguay Railway. During two and a half years' tenure of that appointment not a single locomotive failure has been recorded, notwithstanding that the engines had received the usual rough usage from the contractors during construction, before coming under Mr. Halstead's charge, notwithstanding also that the impecunious condition of the Midland Uruguay Railway Company has been such that only a minimum sum could be devoted to upkeep of rolling stock.

In Mr. Halstead the Cordoba and Rosario Company obtains not merely an exceptionally capable officer, but one possessed with enthusiasm for his work, and the capacity of communicating it to his subordinates. Mr. Halstead never spares himself when the welfare of his department is in question, and the example is not without its influence on his subordinates. It is no small thing to record that he possesses the rare faculty of collecting round him careful steady employes, perhaps as good as are obtainable, and of keeping them together afterwards.—Railway News.

ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

EXCURSION TO COLONIA.

We are requested to notify the members of the English Literary Society that tickets for the Excursion to Colonia will be on sale on and after Thursday, the 28th inst., and that this sale will close at 8 o'clock on Monday morning, the 31st inst. The well-known steamer Luna, belonging to Messrs. Lamport & Holt, has been chartered for the occasion. Already over seventy tickets have been subscribed for, and, as the number will be strictly limited to one hundred, an early demand must be made.

The programme for the day is as follows:—

The Luna will start from the north corner of Darsena at 8 a.m. and will reach Colonia at 11. Lunch will be ready at 12 o'clock. After which an hour can be spent in viewing the ancient town and townsmen; and at 3.30 the steamer will start on the return, reaching the Darsena about 3.30.

The passengers who come from Quilmes must start by the 7 a.m. train and alight at the Casa Amarilla at 7.45 a.m. The steamer will wait for the arrival of this train.

DEATH OF THE DUKE OF CLARENCE.

The addresses to Her Majesty and the Prince of Wales will be withdrawn from the Legation on Saturday the 30th inst., and all names received up to that date by Mrs Pakenham from persons residing in the Provinces will be added before forwarding.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Government has granted a petition filed by Monsieur Sampite, representative of the Fives-Lille Company. This petition is for leave to build certain branches to the San Cristobal-Tucuman, with a view of facilitating the carriage of products of certain industrial establishments in Tucuman. The idea is an excellent one from every point of view, as both the factories and the railway are alike benefitted. The branches to be built are, we gather from a copy of the petition in question, two in number: one being 9 kilometres and the other 7 in length, say in all ten miles.

The aggregate receipts of the Rosario Railway up to the 12th ult., the Western up to the 6th ult., and Central Argentine up to Dec. 13 were:

	1890.	1891.
Rosario Ry	493,821	404,151
Western	227,568	152,341
Cent. Argentine	697,137	334,342

The miles open compare as follow:—

	1890.	1891.
Rosario	344	843
Western	338	338
Cent. Arg.	639	711

A decree was issued yesterday from the Home Office authorising the Fives-Lille Company to open their San Cristobal-Tucuman line from kil. 161, Fortin Inca, to kil. 382, Fortin Mellero. The Company must build the requisite sheds, and should the works be suspendad the guarantee will be stopped.

A decree was issued from the Finance Office yesterday appointing a committee to examine and settle the accounts pending with the railways from 1872 to 1890 for excess of material imported in those years. Art. 7 of the decree regulating law 2861 will be vigorously enforced The following is the committee: Chairman, L. S. Boado; secretary, Carlos Hansen. Manuel Cuenca, Arturo Gomez, Alberto Hansen, Daniel Escobar, and V. Ouviñas.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Something gave way in the springs of the Political Coach yesterday, or a linch-pin fell out, or an axle smashed, and the consequence was a scream and a soar by the Gold Eagle. Some say it wasn't politics that frightened the bird, but the news from the United States that his old chum the Sea Serpent has at last been captured there. We really cannot say. We glean from our Argentine colleagues that the Acuerdo looks sickly in quite a lot of provinces, and not particularly strong here.

We want, or rather a constant subscriber wants, some Pratt's Dog Biscuits. Where are they to be had? We are informed that all the dogs in Christendom, and even in Constantinople, know Pratt, and look on him as their best friend.

The "Horseshoe" is the name of a new English restaurant which opens to-day at 33 Calle Maipu, between Piedad and Rivadavia. Everything good for eating and drinking is to be had there. See the enticing advertizement in another column.

Another row in once peaceful Brazil; but of the usual almost bloodless character. Two regiments in the forts mutinied; the fleet was ordered to bombard them, and other regiments were sent to attack them. This double measure of persuasion had its effect, and the mutineers laid down their arms, like sensible, peace-loving-Brazilians. One of the mutineers was killed (but not by the guns of the fleet, which seem to have behaved in the most peaceful manner) by a rear rank man; but whether accidentally or on purpose is not known. When the affair was over, all the officers and men wept tears of joy!! Ye gods of war!

The following telegrams are detained at the River Plate Telegraph Office, Calle San Martin 287: From Rio for Baptista, from Milano for Muendrine, from Rio for Ferres, from Indianopolis for Van, from Paris for Castro, Rivadavia 4794.

We had the pleasure of receiving yesterday a letter from Captain Chevalier Hairby, of the Lamport and Holt steamer Wordsworth, in which he says that, on her next trip out the Wordsworth will come direct, without calling at Rio, to avoid quarantine here.

A cavalry trooper was shot for murder at General Acha the other day, the frontier commander refusing to listen to any appeal for mercy. It would be a grand thing for the country if this strict and swift military justice could be applied to murderers in general, as the impunity for the crime that cries to heaven for vengeance is every day growing more alarming.

The Caja de Conversion is still playing with fire and shinplasters. Its last bonfire of the latter was fed with $319,802 "flimsies," scraped in by means of "impuestos adicionales."

A tiny girl of two and a half years, when nurse fetched her to be dressed for dinner, exclaimed: "Oh, dear, there is no yest for the 'icked."

Another of the beri-beri patients on Flores Island has gone the way of all flesh. The best cure for this disease is to be far out at sea. The patient either recovers or "goes" in a few days—generally escaping. In such a hole as Flores Island there is not much chance.

Hospital gives the following antiseptic hint, which is easily taken in this city, in the suburbs of which the Eucalyptus tree is so plentiful as to have become a bit of a nuisance:—"Baron Sir F. Von Mueller has introduced into Victoria the use of green Eucalyptus branches in sick-rooms. He recommends the placing of them under bedsteads as applicable to all infectious and contagious diseases. Their use in this manner is alleged to have been successful with phthisical patients, both antiseptically and as a sedative, or even hypnotic in some cases. The experience of another physician, after a trial of twelve months, is stated to have been that, in scarlet fever, the bedding is thus thoroughly disinfected, the volatile vapour penetrating the mattress as well as every other article, so that no other disinfection is required for the room, as the vapour destroys every germ. The remedy certainly has the great merit of simplicity."

The "Digesto Rural y Agrario," compiled by Mr. Juan Goyena, chief clerk in the Prefectura Maritima, is a valuable work of reference for lawyers and landowners, as it contains all the important laws in relation to land, mines, woods, quarries, agriculture, etc. etc. enacted from 1810 up to the present day.

Some goody-goody readers were quite angry with us for suggesting when we first heard of the Duke of Clarence's death that his fiancee would probably marry his brother. The English people evidently think with us. The young people have a good example before them in the Prince's aunt and uncle, the Czar and Czarina of Russia, the model crowned couple of Europe, whose case was similar; and the marriage has turned out the happiest possible. There are strong State reasons why Prince George should marry soon, lest the succession should get too near the Duchess of Fife. A Scotch Duke as Consort of the Sov

Messrs. Moore & Tudor, Maipu 163, B. Aires.
Chascomus, March 23rd 1891.
Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to its EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.

It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Tuesday, Jan. 26th.

The gold market ruled very firm today; it was stated that politics were again critical, and the many believed the news. Over twenty thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $61.30, fell to 61.30, rose to 61.70, and closed hard at 61.60, say 278½ % premium. About three thousand sovereigns were sold; the price closed at $19.15, say 280 % premium.

Patriotic Bonds ruled very dull and weak; they opened at 57.65 and closed at 57.70. One lot of one thousand Catalinas shares changed hands at 6.70. A few French Bank shares were sold at 32 gold. La Plata Cedulas continued weak.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

quoted on 31st October from the cost prices of the company's investments in London amount to £90,000. The directors are advised and believe that the above appropriations are more than sufficient, and they further consider that the depreciation of Argentine securities will disappear to a great extent before realisation, and they do not, therefore, think that any considerable proportion of the above-mentioned sum of £90,000 can be regarded as lost. They do not, however, recommend that any of the profits of the year ended 31st October, 1891, should be distributed at the present moment, but that a sum equal to the amount of a dividend at the rate of 5 per cent be carried to a separate reserve fund (to be termed the "detained dividend fund") and invested in Consols, £10,000, and that the balance of the profit for the year be carried forward to the accounts now current, £3,543 7s 6d—total, £13,543 7s 6d.

We see by our London advices that on Dec. 18 the Cedula Bondholders' Committee received, at their offices, 42, Old Broad-street, E.C., the Delegates of the Antwerp Defence Committee of Argentine Bondholders. At the Conference which ensued the Delegates announced that their Committee had placed themselves in communication with the principal Continental cities where Cedulas and other Argentine Securities are held, and had taken measures to secure International co-operation in the defence of the rights of the holders. The two Committees, after interchanging views on the situation, unanimously agreed that the Antwerp Committee should use every endeavour to unite the Cedula holders in the various Continental centres in support of the action of the London Cedula Bondholders' Committee. A meeting of holders of gold and paper Cedulas of both the National and Provincial Mortgage Banks was announced to be held at the Exchange (sale room) at Antwerp on Tuesday, January 5, "for the purpose of discussing the action to be taken in order to prevent the working out of the recent laws of the Argentine National Congress and Province of Buenos Ayres Congress, which allow the cancelling of Mortgages without sufficient compensation for the Banks."

At the fourth ordinary meeting of the Shareholders of the Buenos Ayres and Valparaiso Transandine Railway Company, held in London, Mr. O. C. Waterfield, Chairman of the Directors, presided, and moved the adoption of the Report. He remarked that, great as is the change in the position of the Company since their last meeting, nothing has happened to show that their engineers have been in error. The line is perfectly feasible, and will sooner or later be completed, so that there will be direct communication between Buenos Ayres and Valparaiso. The condition of the finances of the Argentine has directly affected their company. The contractors, Messrs Clark and Company, agreed at the outset to receive payment in Bonds and Shares that depended absolutely upon the solidity of the Argentine guarantee. These Bonds and Shares having depreciated, or having become unsaleable, the contractors are in difficulties. It was out of their power to help Messrs Clark with money, but they could give them time, and that they had done. He is happy to be able to state that an Anglo-American Construction Company has been formed to take over the contractors' business and responsibility so far as it affected their Company. Notwithstanding these obstacles, 120 kilometres of their line have been constructed, and 91¼ kilometres have been opened to traffic. Their prospects of a dividend depend, of course, upon the Argentine Government. Their concession is distinct, and it remains to be seen whether the Republic will fulfill its obligations. Mr. Underdown seconded the motion, and it was adopted.

We take the following from a Liverpool colleague:—

"Mr. Arthur Geo. Pruden, representative of Messrs. Blackstone and Co. Ld., arrived at Liverpool on Wednesday in last week by the steamship City of New York, of the Inman line, after having completed his second tour round the world. This tour has been rather more extended than the previous one, as, in addition to Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, the Argentine Republic, Uruguay and Brazil, he has visited the West Indies, and the United States; and has now completed a chain of agencies encircling the entire globe for this well known firm. Such a circumstance cannot fail to be conducive to the best interests of Stamford."

A BULLRICH Y CIA.
Excepcional Remate de
2.000 Esplendidas Vacas Durham, mestizas con novillada y con 30 toros padres puros, procedentes del renombrado establecimiento "Miraflores," propiedad del Señor Don Exequiel Ramos Mejias. El remate tendra lugar en las inmediaciones de la estacion Julio Arditi (F. C. de la Magdalena)
El Domingo 21 de Febrero
a la 1 de la tarde
Las vacas que ofrecemos en venta son especialisimas y pocas veces se presentan ocasiones como estas de hacerse de inmejorables planteles.
Estas haciendas proceden de un rodeo de vacas mestizas que formó a eleccion el Sr. Ramos Mejia y cuyos novillos se han vendido siempre a precios muy elevados, habiendose obtenido hasta 100 pesos cada uno.
Hace muchos años que estas vacas se han reproducido con toros puros de inmejorable sangre y anualmente se han hecho depuraciones y limpiezas, dejando solo lo muy bueno y sacando lo inferior para consumo o para venta
Los 30 toros son puros por cruzamiento, pues tienen 50 años de mestizacion, siempre con ihmejorables reproductores de las buenas cabañas de Inglaterra.
La venta será en lotes para planteles al gusto de los interesados.
Un tren expreso saldrá de la Estacion Central a las 10.25 a.m. regresando una vez concluido el remate. Mas datos a nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482.

TO ESTANCIEROS.

Why use poisonous dips dangerous to both Man and Beast, and from the effects of which Estancieros are continually suffering heavy losses, and puesteros getting maimed, when you can buy.

LAIDLAW'S TOBACCO POWDER

which is guaranteed perfectly harmless in use, costs less and never fails to cure the worst bases of Scab

Read one of the latests testimonials :—

Estancia El Ombu
Ramallo, Oct. 21st, 1891

Messrs. Mackill, Murray & Co., Buenos Aires

Dear Sirs

I am more than satisfied with the result from dipping with Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder, and I may say that so is Mr. C. Quesada, owner of this estancia. I dipped the sheep (60.000) twice in February and since then have had hardly any work to do from hand-curing and the sheep are perfectly sound to-day. The cost of Dipping, including labour, was $0.2 65 cents per head or $26.50 per 1000 sheep. I have not tried it for hand curing, having a drum of 5 gallons on hand of another dip, and this has more than sufficed for all the hand-curing that has been necessary since February last.

I remain your sincerely
(signed) CHARLES R. KENYON.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHLORODYNE.

The original and only genuine

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, etc.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Lear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent, we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Crampas, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation dury many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Mc Beers of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See the "Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelmning medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.
